Preface

Early in the present year the management of the school planned to issue a booklet giving some account of the school and its graduates in recognition of the twenty-fifth anniversary of its organization. However, it has not been possible to carry out the original intent, owing to the difficulty in securing material. We appreciate the co-operation of the Alumni in the preparation of the booklet and especially of those who prepared the alumni roll. Great care has been exercised in preparing this roll and yet there may be many errors. The principal of the school will appreciate any corrections or additions any one may be able to make and asks that such be sent to him.

The printing of the booklet was delayed until the last week of school in order to secure certain records and, in the hurried work thus necessitated, some errors have been made. We designed a history of athletics in the school. The first part, from 1892-5, written by Mr. M. Justus Overacker, and the second, 1895-9, by Mr. William Patterson, will be found under "Reminiscences" by Miss Crocker. The third, 1903-7, by Mr. Robert Blacow, is under "Reminiscences" by Mrs. Shinn. This is followed by the account from 1907-12, by Leopold Falk. An interesting account of the class of 1907 together with cartoons of its members by Richard Hunt was received too late for publication.

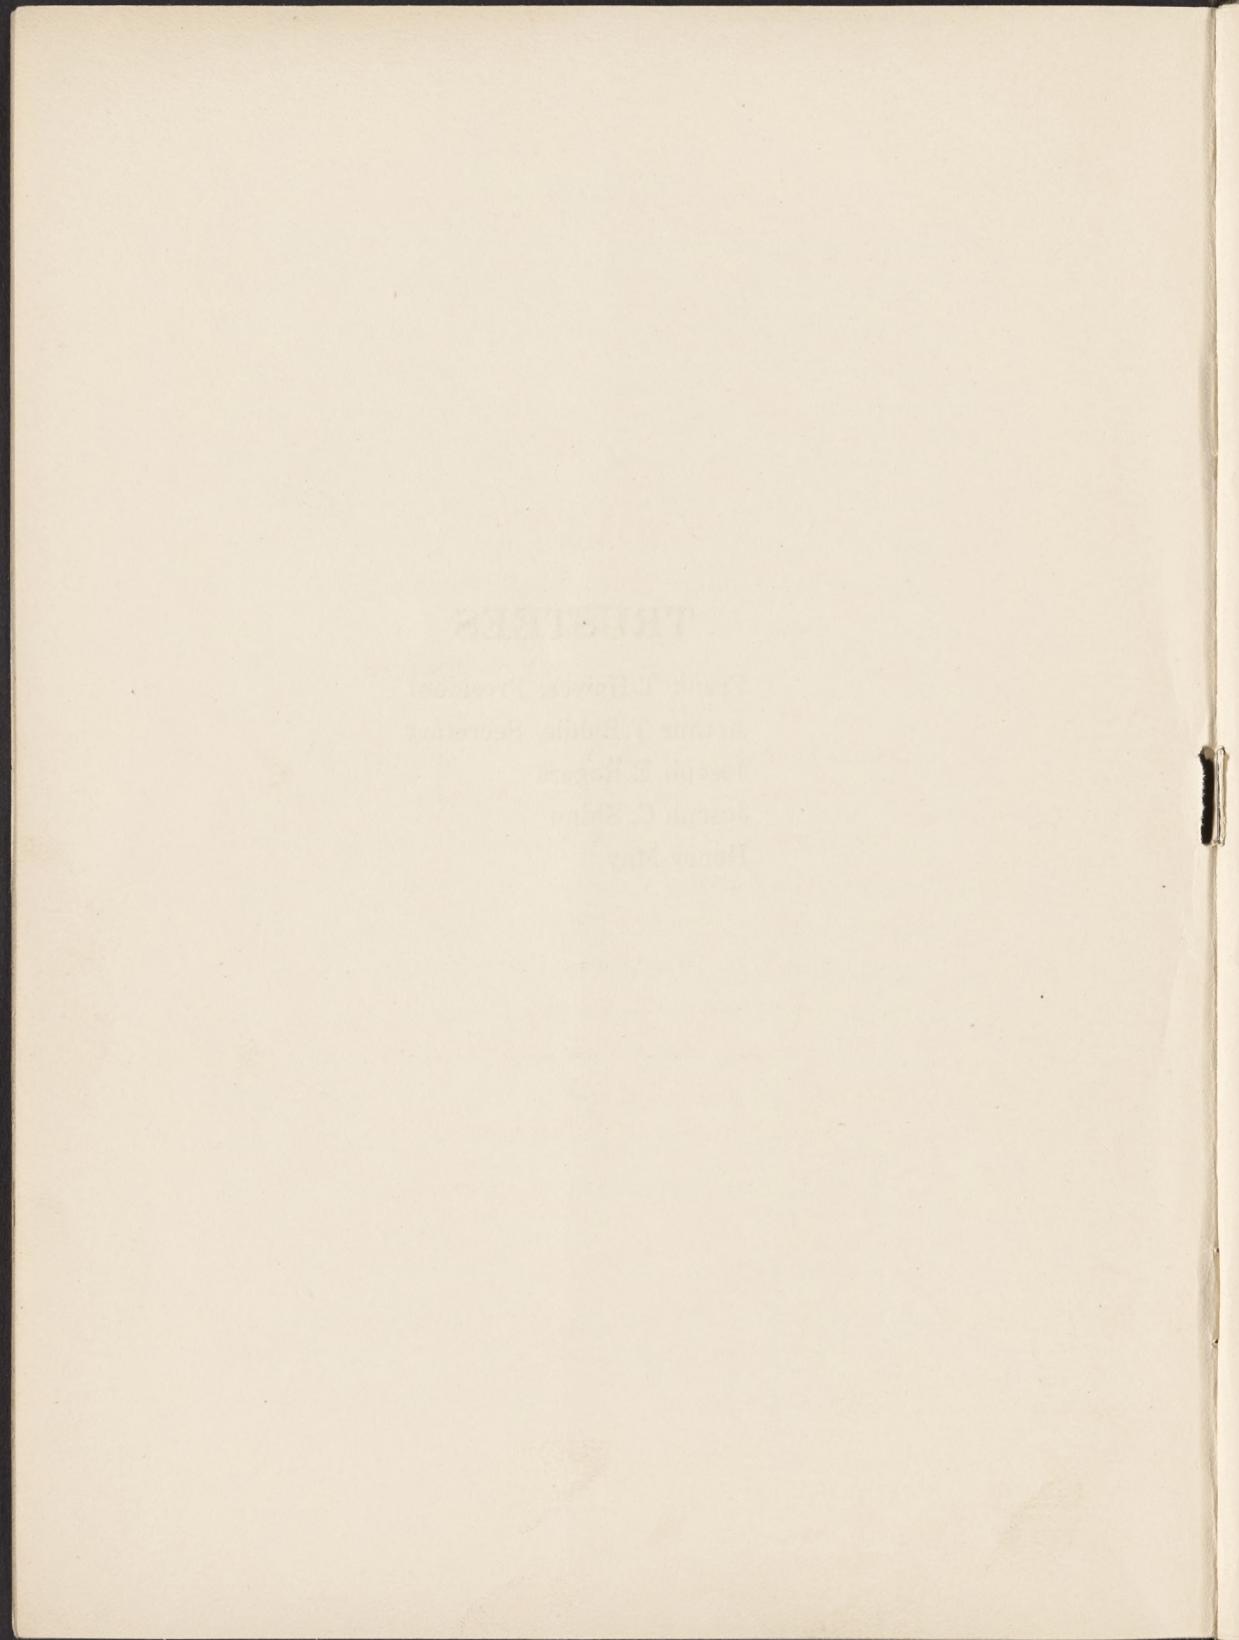

This booklet was prepared under the direction of the principal, G.W.Wright. The linotype work was done by the Hayward Journal and the press-work by Mr. E.V.Weller.

1900

(Prepared by J. Leonard Rose)

With an enrollment of over eighteen pupils the Class of 1900 was one of the largest that had ever entered the High School, but, as usual in those days, many left to attend the Normal School at San Jose, and others discontinued their high school course, so that finally only seven were graduated. It was the first class of the high school to publish a magazine. This magazine was a great success and advertisement for the high school. Today it affords interesting reading for the alumni. Besides attaining considerable notoriety in the literary line, it was during the years of the class of 1900 that the high school achieved considerable prominence in athletics. In 1899 the famous football team, which was composed of eleven players with two substitutes, tied Belmont High school twice for the intercollegiate football championship of the secondary schools of California. Belmont refused to play out the tie.

The graduates of this class have followed various vocations, as the following account shows.

Charles F. Cummings, who now resides at Centerville, California, attended the University of California during 1902-1903. He was the first graduate to serve as a Member of the Board of Trustees of the high school. During the years of 1906 to 1910, he served respectively as a deputy in the Auditor's, Surveyor's and Assessor's office of this county. At present, according to his own words: "I am not married, but as this is leap year I still have hopes, and am retired to private life" (the latter statement probably means: back to the farm).

Alice Jacobus, nee Alice Olney, now resides at 3040 Grove Street, Berkeley, California. She is a graduate nurse from the Children's Hospital of San Francisco, which vocation she followed until the year 1905. In that year she was married to P. Guy Jacobus, and is now the happy mother of a boy and a girl.

Guy Kraft is now a resident of Weed, Siskiyou County, California. After graduating from the Polytechnic Business College of Oakland, he became a bookkeeper for the Union Lumber Company of Fort Bragg, California, and remained in their employ for a long time. In 1906, he married Esther Parrish of Fort Bragg, and is now the proud father of a boy and a girl. At present he is managing a grocery store.

May Mattos still resides at Centerville, California. Ever since the establishment of the Bank of Centerville she has been in its employ, and during the last six months has been the head bookkeeper.

William H. Norris resides at Central Elia, Camaguey Province, Cuba. He attended the University of California for two years after 1900, and specialized in chemistry. For a while he was employed at Alvarado by the Alameda Sugar Company. For the last year he has been employed as a chemist at his present address.

J. Leonard Rose still resides at Newark, California. In 1905 he received the degree of Bachelor of Arts from the University of California, and in 1907 received from the same institution the degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence. He was admitted to practice law in April, 1906, and during the years 1907 and 1908 was a deputy in the District Attorney's office of Alameda County, after which he entered into private practice of law, and is now engaged with Judge A. F. St. Sure in the practice of law, with his office in Oakland, California.

William Clyde Smith now resides at Donners Grove, Illinois. He graduated from the University of California in 1904, with the Degree of L. B. Shortly thereafter he engaged in real estate business for about three months in Berkeley. Then he entered into missionary work, and in April, 1910, graduated from McCormick's Theological Seminary of Chicago. Shortly thereafter he married Nellie Cleveland of Chicago. They have a boy. Ever since he was ordained a Presbyterian Minister he has been engaged in social, immigrant and church-extension work.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1902 SINCE GRADUATION.

Emma Blacow (Mrs. R. O. Hoedel) attended the University of Calif. for four years. There she met Mr. Hoedel and was married in the fall of 1906. They are now living in Berkeley at 2425 Woolsey St. and have one child, Robert Blacow Hoedel.

Stuart Chisholm graduated from the University of Calif. with the class of 1906. He then spent a number of years in Europe making a study of landscape gardening, which line he has been following. At present he is in Virginia.

Alice Hudson (Mrs. R. L. Button) attended the University for six months and then went to the Oakland Polytechnic Business College. She was in the business world until 1909 when she was married and lived in Seattle for a year. Since then she has been living in Oakland at 436 60th Street. She has a daughter aged six years.

Bess Hudson (Mrs. W. A. Newman) graduated from the University of Calif. with the class of 1906 and taught school for five years, doing both grammar and high school work. She was married in 1911 and is living at 390 62nd Street, Oakland.

Edith Jones went to the Oakland Polytechnic Business College after finishing High School and has been in the business world ever since. She is at present with the Scottish Union and National Fire Insurance Company in San Francisco, and resides at 1515 Webster Street, Oakland.

Josephine Noll prepared herself for the teaching profession at the San Jose Normal School and is at present teaching in Alameda, and resides at 1837 Clinton Ave.

Inez Whipple (Mrs. H. F. Harrold) after finishing high school attended the University of Calif four years specializing in history. She then lived at her home in Decoto until 1914 when she was married to Mr. H. F. Harrold. They live near Orland on a ranch and have a small son.

It has been so many years since we were in high school that it is hard to remember any matters of interest that happened in our senior year. Our commencement was unique in that we had a debate on woman suffrage, little thinking that we would have the suffrage here in California before many years. Each side was so well argued that the judges could not decide which was the winner and called it a tie. None of the members of the class has done anything remarkable yet but there is no telling what the future may bring forth.

Mary Jackson. Teacher in Decoto Grammar School, Decoto, Calif.

Belle Jarvis. U. C. fall semester 1904.

Nellie Jarvis. U. C. fall semester 1904. Instructor in China Painting; San Jose, Calif.

Marie Sandholt. Teacher in Washington Union High School. U. C. '07. P. G. '08. Centerville, Calif.

Manuel Telles. Business College; Roadmaster Mission San Jose. Mission San Jose.

Ivy Belle Ralph, a member of the class of 1903 until Christmas 1902, moved to Oakland and graduated in June from the Oakland High School.

Miss Belle Jarvis and Leland Cutler were married in Berkeley, in June 1910. Mr. Cutler entered with the class, but finished his course at Anderson's Academy, and then went to Stanford. The sympathy of the class went out to Mr. Cutler when his wife passed away at their home in Berkeley.

A pleasant recollection of 1903, was the day spent in San Francisco, when as the guests of Mrs. Mary C. Allen the class attended the performance of Julius Caesar, at the Grand Opera House.

The class of 1904 consisted of four members, as follows: Elma J. Salz, Centerville; Hermann D. Budleman, Etna Mills; Edwin M. Whipple, Decoto; William A. Granville, Centerville.

Miss Salz, a few years after graduating married Mr. Herbert D. Allen and at present lives at 5568 Broadway, Oakland, Calif.

Hermann Budlemann entered the University of California in 1904 and graduated in 1908 from the Department of Mining, going immediately to South America where he remained three years. Returning to the United States he took a position as Mining Engineer at Tonopah, Nevada, and is employed there at the present time. His address is Box 1306, Tonopah, Nevada. He is married and as he says, has the finest daughter of any one in Tonopah.

Edwin Whipple after graduating entered Wilmerding High School in San Francisco from which he graduated in two years, taking a position with The Pacific Gas and Electric Co. as Supt. of Construction. He is still with the same Company in the same position. He is now married and lives at Auburn, Calif.

William Granville one year after graduating took a position with The Reliance Mill and Lumber Co., of Oakland, Calif., and is still in their employ. His present address is 2346 East 20th Street, Oakland, Cal.

There, all ye who read of us, are all the facts of the cold hard statistical department of our class. I wish it were fuller and that there could be greater things said of each of us but every one is so bashful.

Now I wonder if the recording angel of the classes before and after ours has the same troubles. Some of our members "Hide their lights under bushels," 999999999.99 quotation from the "Good Book." You all remember who used to tell us of the "Good Book" and hit us with the wisdom therefrom? We used to laugh, but they were all well put and after all we liked them.

Viola, Bee, Edith and Ruth will have to step up before their class and Miss Colby will assign several stanzas for memory work in punishment for "not doing their bit."

As to the recollections of our Senior Year, very, very little has been said, but there has been enough sent in to give us a smile or two and perhaps a grave thought here and there.

Howard wants to know if you all recall "Fritz" Bassler and Johnny Beard in our play. Who wouldn't? Also do you all remember Howard's LAUGH of Fiendish Glee in the same play? or my black beard and mustache that were no match for my light hair? Do you remember that Hawley's sword refused to come from the scabbard when the pirate was captured? But the laugh of all in that play was little Georgie Wright's immediate recognition of his father's flowing bathrobe that adorned yours truly in one scene, and the little fellow's excited, boyish proclamation to the multitude that "There is Daddy's robe, Mamma, THERE IS DAD—SSSSSSSSSHHH hhhhhh Georgie!

Annie tells a tale of two horses that wouldn't pull together when she and Bez started on the trip up the Mission Peak for that picnic. Also that Edith and Austin who were on the back seat never knew that they were fifteen or twenty minutes getting away from Irvington or according to Annie, they never knew anything at all about the trip. WHY?

Then what do you suppose Ann put into the letter that she knew my wife was sure to see? She wanted to know if I remembered whom I took. Yes I remember, and folks she was a heap heavier during the last few yards up the final slope that I pulled her. Nuff Sed.

Now for one on Dear Miss Spencer, the friend of us all, and the terror in physics. It was with the galvanometer and of course the girls could not get the results we boys had and so Miss Spencer helped them and they got fine results, while two male members shrieked with glee for the machine was disconnected from the batteries—do any blame us?

I guess that will be all of such, but from out of the Canadian Northwest comes from Lucy the voicing of sentiments that we all held and I am sure hold dearer today than yesterday—a tribute of respect and appreciation to the staff of teachers who labored so unselfishly giving us the best of their splendid and efficient service.

I have seen the teachers of the State assembled in several meetings, witnessed the methods of many others of the profession in their daily work, worked with them, but there always seems to me the fact that we were all singularly blest in that we had not only TEACHERS of the first magnitude but MEN AND WOMEN, to labor with us. We had no pedantic pedagogues to deal with us, no narrow minded egotistical instructors, and no super educated beings that knew all and gave nothing—we simply had the BEST.

That we will say to you teachers and say it gladly.

To our Principal come the tributes from them all, for his personal and human interest in us as a class and as individuals.

Harold Alsford is in the employ of the W. P. Fuller Paint Company of San Francisco. His address is 1004 McAllister St., San Francisco.

Harriet Baldwin graduated from the High School Commercial Course and was a bookkeeper and stenographer in Oakland. At present is at home, Niles, Cal.

Helen Blacow went to the University of California and graduated with the 1915 class. Has been teaching in the Newark Grammar School this last year, and has just announced her engagement to Mr. De Ralph Frizell.

Josephine Blacow was librarian of the Irvington Library up to a short time ago, when she moved with her family to Honolulu. Her address is 1144 Fort St., Honolulu, T. H.

Mae Borges attended the San Jose Normal and since graduating has been teaching in Niles, Cal., which place is her address.

Tracy Crane went to the University of California in 1911. In 1912 he took a trip around the world on the S. S. Cleveland. During 1913 and 1914 he worked with the Exposition builders, and at present is credit manager for the B. F. Goodrich Rubber Company of San Francisco. He lives in San Lorenzo, which place is his address.

Edward Falk went to the University of California one year, and since has been in the employ of the Zellerbach Paper Company of San Francisco. His address is 875 Post St., San Francisco, Cal.

Mabel Fowler has been librarian of the Newark Library ever since graduating. Her address is Newark, Cal.

Doris Jacobus went to Polytechnic Business College in Oakland, and for a time was a stenographer in that city. At present she is in training for a nurse in Merritt Hospital. Her address is Merritt Hospital, Oakland.

Mary Keller went to the San Jose Normal and after graduating taught in the Niles Grammar School for a year. Then she married and is now Mrs. W. H. Murphy, living at 2111-7th St., West Berkeley.

Flora McKeown attended Heald's Business College in San Francisco, and was a stenographer in that city. At present she is at home, her address being R. F. D. Newark, Cal.

Muriel Plummer attended San Jose Normal and since graduating has been teaching in El Portal. Her address is El Portal, Mariposa Co., Cal.

Lillian Stivers married soon after graduating and is now Mrs. H. L. Scott, of Niles.

Earl Trimmingham is engaged in electrical work in San Francisco. His address is 1004 McAllister St., San Francisco.

Izobel Whipple attended San Jose Normal one term, also one summer session at the University, after which she took the Alameda County Teachers' Examination. She has taught in Fresno County, at Decoto, at Sacramento, and since Christmas has been teaching in the Highland School, Oakland. Her address is 340 E.-16th St., Oakland, Cal.

Our 1911 class entered school in August, 1907, with an enrollment of twenty-three, and at Christmas time of the same year Frank Borst was transferred from the Seattle High School, and joined the class. During the first year we lost the following students: Egie May Ashman, Everest Vargas Deas, Rita Lucas, Henry Naeurt, and Emma Wales.

Egie May Ashman came from the Masonic Home and left because she was leaving the Home.

Everest Vargas Deas left school and married. She is now Mrs. Andrew Larsen of Caroline St., Alameda.

Rita Lucas also married. She is now Mrs. V. Fournier of Niles, Cal.

Henry Naeurt left school to attend the Polytechnic Business College, Oakland. During the Exposition he was with the exhibit, in Machinery Hall, of the J. H. Williams Company of Brooklyn, New York, Manufacturers of superior drop forgings. At present he is with the Empire Foundry Company in Oakland, and lives in the Como Apartments, 14th and Alice Sts., Oakland.

Emma Wales is with the Western Pacific R. R. Co. and lives in the Empire Apartments, Bush St., San Francisco.

At the beginning of our second year Edna Kell and George Muller failed to return.

Edna Kell became Mrs. James McGraw and lives in Niles. George Muller is a resident of Irvington.

At Christmas time of our second year Frank Borst returned to the Seattle High School on a transfer.

At the close of our second year Mildred Chamberlain was transferred to the San Rafael High School, as her family moved to that place. She finished high school and attended the San Francisco Normal one year. Then she married and is now Mrs. Alger B. Scott of Paso Robles.

When we entered for a third year George McNeil, Palmyra Pine Lebo, Evelyn Swartz and Manuel Pine Lebo did not return.

George McNeil was from the Masonic Home and left school because he was leaving the Home.

Palmyra Pine Lebo married and is now Mrs. Terra, and lives at Warm Springs.

Evelyn Swartz is now Mrs. Joseph Peixouto of Centerville, Cal.

Manuel Pine Lebo died in 1914.

Thus we entered our senior year with only eleven original members of our beginning class, but four special work students joined us and graduated with us, bringing our numbers to fifteen.

There were few changes in the faculty during our four years, Mr. Wright being our only principal. Miss Spencer came to teach in 1907 at the time we entered, and Mr. Moyer came the following year to fill the vacancy left by Miss Colby's departure. Miss Bernard also came at this time to take charge of the Commercial Course which was put into the school then. Miss Sandholt came at the beginning of the fourth year to fill the vacancy left by Miss Hudson when she married.

As a class we fully enjoyed our four years, taking especial pleasure in all the athletic opportunities the school afforded. In Miss Spencer the girls had the advantage of an enthusiastic supervisor.

During our Senior year the Spring Valley Water Company gave the school the large house on the adjoining property, and practically gave the use of the large field in which it stood to the boys for an athletic field. The house was moved over and work started on the large addition to the high school building.

We ended our career with the usual Commencement Week program, Dr. Charles F. Aked delivering our graduation address.

Three years have past since we left our Alma Mater to journey forth on the path of experience.

We are all scattered from here and there with different interests and new friends yet each one of us still holds dear a place in our hearts for the Class of 1913.

We entered High with a class of twenty-five or more but when we had reached "Senior Heights" we were but twelve in number.

Our years in High were all happy ones but the one that stands out most vividly is our Senior Year.

It is difficult to recall everything we did but such pranks as donning middies with a bright blue "13" on the sleeve and stealing away from latin and the assembly cannot be forgotten.

We went on a picnic to Alum Rock. The whole school joined us. We drove in great busses duly chaperoned by Miss Spencer and Mr. Wright. A right merry time we did have for our chaperones were as gay and as youthful as those under their charge.

Then we had a class party at the home of Ruth Van Dervoort, one of our classmates. This was one of the most enjoyable pleasures of the year.

It is true we didn't do much in line of dramatics until we gave our senior production "Ye Old English Plays" on the lawn of the High School grounds. This proved very successful and showed that we weren't a talentless class after all.

Our graduation exercises followed our senior production. This was truly the most thrilling time of all. We rejoiced to be graduated yet it grieved us to think our high school days and classmates should have to part.

Rabbi Meyer delivered a most impressive address to us.

His words were so true and weighty that they made a permanent home in our mind. The following evening after graduation was our party to the school and our friends at Maple Hall, Irvington. Such a party it was too. The hall was decorated most brilliantly in California poppies and greens. The party had left a pleasant mark upon all of those that were present.

The last time that we were together as a class was at the dinner given us by the University Club at the home of Miss M. Shinn. We were entertained most royally and we shall always recall this dinner as a happy parting of the class.

Thus our high school career upon which we can look as the happiest and brightest time of our lives, came to a close.

Leland Stivers. Following Civil Engineering. Residence, Niles.

Sidney Tyson. Farming. Residence, Niles.

In this authentic history of the Class of 1914 you will find nothing that can hurt or flatter, only the plain statement of the goings and comings of its members. When school opened in August, 1910, there were twenty-eight of us. Before a month had passed several dropped out. At the end of the Freshman year Constance Scott left and entered

Los Angeles High School. She then attended the University of California for a time and is now reporter for the Daily News of San Francisco.

At the close of her Sophomore year, Marjorie Huxley left and entered Berkeley High School. At present she is attending the University of California. Lloyd Wilkinson also left the same year and entered Santa Rosa High School. He is at present attending a school of pharmacy in San Francisco.

But the class of 1914 had its laggards. Each year several fell by the way. In the Senior year there were but thirteen, four girls and nine boys.

In school activities the class was not without its laurels. George, Meyer, Burchardi, Calhoun and Dassel were well known on the Rugby teams. In track George, Lowrie and Tyson helped win the League championship for our school. Calhoun and Meyer did their part in winning the baseball pennant.

Our class play displayed the histrionic talent of its members. Frank Mendoza and Dorothy Plummer are especially remembered in "Saint Patrick's Day."

After graduation, our class mates have drifted in various directions. Sidney Tyson and Adolph Burchardi are engaged in farming. Marston Dassel has entered the rural mail service for Uncle Sam. Rumor has it that he is soon to be married.

Earl Meyer is at present engaged in the employment of the Oakland Brick Paving Co. but has other aspirations.

We find that Vertner Calhoun soon after graduating entered upon the sterner realities of married life, and is employed as assistant shipping clerk for Monist & Co., San Francisco.

Urban George is preparing himself for the profession of law at the University of California.

Frank Mendoza is studying telegraphy at Oakland Polytechnic College of Engineering. He is undecided as to whether he will follow that vocation as a life calling.

Leland Stivers after graduating entered upon the course of civil engineering.

Joseph Lowrie at present is preparing himself for a similar course at the University of Nevada.

Annie Logan and Marjorie May are attending San Jose Normal, preparing themselves for the profession of "teaching young ideas how to shoot."

Dorothy Plummer, after graduating attended the University of California for a semester. She then entered the University of the Pacific at San Jose and remained there a semester and at present is attending Stanford University.

Aileen Mickle is attending Stanford University.

I might go on and on, and tell in more detail what we have done, but thus ends the first chapter in the history of the class. I leave to some future historian, whatever achievement if any there be, worthy of note in the life of each individual.

1915

The graduating class of 1915 consisted of sixteen students, nine boys and seven girls. Of this number, thirteen, or practically three-quarters of the class, were not satisfied with a mere high school training and have determined to continue their education in higher branches of learning. Four of these students are now pursuing a course in the University of California; six are training to become teachers at the San Jose Normal School; two are taking up specialized courses in the Affiliated College of San Francisco; and one is attending the University of Nevada. As to the other three of the class who are not to be found in the halls of advanced learning, one is a clerk in a prominent store in San Francisco, another has proved himself to be a capable railroad man, and the last of the three has entered upon that ever turbulent sea of matrimony, which knows neither peace nor slumber. In all, each member of the class is busy in doing something—there are no idlers, and the progress that the class has been experiencing since graduation can best be made apparent to all by giving a brief record of what each one of the class has been accomplishing. Below appears such an account of what each member of the class has been doing during the past year.

Percy Bell has been attending the University of California during the past two semesters. He has enrolled in the College of Letters and Science, and is making Economics his major subject. He is a member of Sequoyah Club, and his college residence is at 2528 Ridge Road, Berkeley. Besides his school work, he is employed during evenings in a Berkeley garage. By this means he has practically earned his whole way through college. His sticktoitness and his determination to reap the benefits of a college education at whatever cost or personal sacrifice, is much to be commended.

Elsie Costa has been attending the San Jose Normal School during the past school year. She is training herself to be a teacher of the grammar grades. She is a member of the Newman Club, and has figured quite prominently as a member of the girl's first basketball team. She is boarding together with Marie Nunes at 341 West San Carlos St., San Jose.

Manuel Dutra has affiliated himself with the Affiliated Colleges of San Francisco. He is specializing in pharmacy, and expects to become a prominent druggist some day. He is rooming together with Joaquin Fields, in a boarding house in San Francisco.

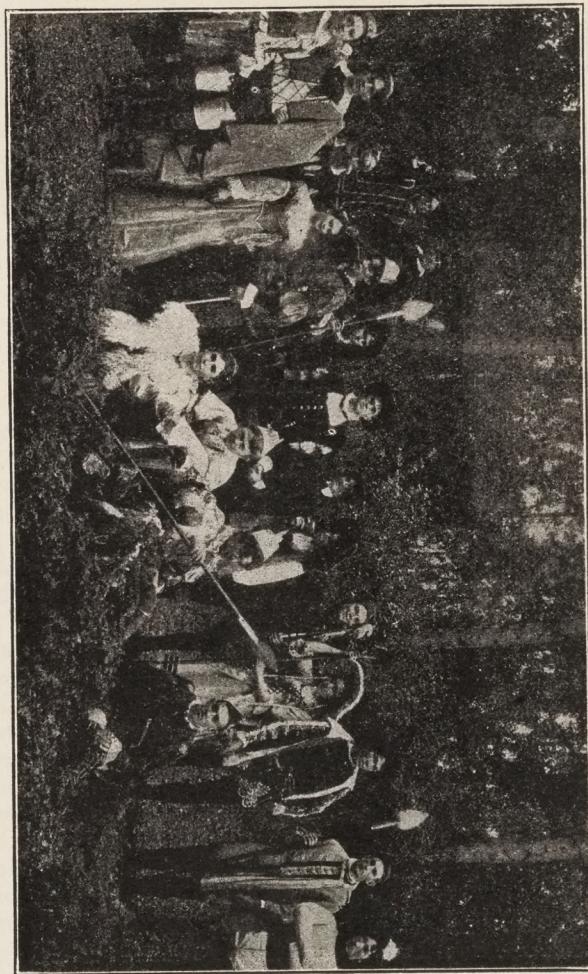

Edward Ellsworth has enrolled in the College of Letters and Science at the University of California. He is majoring in law, and expects to enter the School of Jurisprudence in his senior year. He belongs to the Pre-Legal Association, a new organization that has originated among the freshmen for prospective students of law. His college residence is at 2642 Bancroft Way, Berkeley.

Football team, 1894

As You Like It, 1898

Joaquin Fields has been attending the Affiliated Colleges of San Francisco. He is specializing in pharmacy. He worked for a time in drug store in San Francisco during the afternoons, and gained much practical experience thereby. His city residence is at 528 Kearny Street, where he rooms with Manual Dutra.

Kenneth Hawley has seen it expedient that he should continue his pursuit of knowledge in a different clime than that of his native state, and has therefore gone to Nevada, where he has enrolled in the University of Nevada. He is majoring in mining, and finds the nearby mines there as instruments for practical experience. He belongs to the Phi Delta San fraternity, and lives at 53 West 9th Street, Reno, Nevada.

Ronald Hunt has enrolled in the College of Agriculture at the University of California. He is majoring in horticulture, and expects to spend six months of his time at Davis Farm in his Junior year, for practical experience. He belongs to the University Glee Club, and has become prominent more than on one occasion for his heart appealing solos. He also belongs to the Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity, and is a member of the Entomology Club. His college residence is at 2614 Dwight Way, Berkeley.

Clarence Maciel started out as a country farmer, but has found the alluring lights of San Francisco too attractive for him, and has consequently found a position as a clerk in an insurance office in San Francisco. He may not be acquiring a theoretical education in some higher school of learning, but he is nevertheless broadening his mind by coming into contact with different types of people.

Malea Moore has been attending the San Jose Normal School during the past year, and is preparing herself as a teacher for the grammar grades. She belongs to the Newman Club and has taken active part in school affairs.

Helen Murphy has enrolled in the College of Letters and Science at the University of California. She is specializing in languages, with German as her probable major. She is a pledged member of the Rediviva Club, but has been living during the past two semesters with her aunt at 451 Twenty-Eighth St., Oakland.

Marie Nunes has been pursuing a teachers' course at the San Jose Normal School. She expects to begin teaching by next year. She is a member of the Newman Club, and takes an active part in school activities. She rooms with Elsie Costa at 341 West San Carlos St., San Jose.

Jeanette Peterson is the only member of the class that has entered upon the troubrous seas of matrimony, and must as a consequence be known by a different name—Mrs. H. F. Lyle. Mrs. Lyle evidently does not find married life too disturbing for her nerves, for she has not lost any of that spontaneous jollity that especially characterized her, when in the high school. Mr. Lyle is employed at the Pacific Hardware Company in Berkeley, and while he properly rules in the home, still there is some inkling that he does not govern. The residence of this happily married pair is on 2536 Fulton St., Berkeley.

Leonard Smith has been in the employ of the Southern Pacific during the past year, and has done the work assigned to him in a very efficient manner. He is now working in the Niles Tower, but expects to enter some college during the next semester. He aspires to broaden his knowledge by taking up a course in some advanced seat of learning.

Marion Vandervoort has been attending the San Jose Normal School during the past two semesters, and is fitting herself for the teacher's position. She is a member of the Newman Club and takes an active part in the various athletics. She is a commuter and her residence is consequently still in Irvington.

Charles Wauhab is the only male student of the class that has entered the San Jose Normal School. He is already engaged in active teaching, as he is now conducting a class of seventeen boys in agriculture. He belongs to the Normal Young Men's Club, an organization among the men of the Normal School, for the purpose of helping the schools as a whole. He has taken an active part in the various dramatics that were produced by this organization. He is also a member of the Choral Society, and his melodious voice bids fair to take any house by applause. His residence is at 360 North 19th St., San Jose.

Irene Whitfield is still another member of the class that has been pursuing a teachers' course at the San Jose Normal School. She is also a member of the Newman Club, and takes an active part in athletics. She is another commuter, and her residence is therefore still at Mission San Jose.

Thus it can be readily seen that the class of 1915 is not standing still, nor is it resting upon its past achievements—it is making the high school education that it received a means to a higher education and not an end in itself. It will not fail to contribute its share of representatives into the active and intelligent life of the community at large for the class will be represented in diverse fields of effort—in teaching, in pharmacy, in scientific agriculture, in scientific mining, in the profession of law, in economics and in other professional branches. Yet while this class of 1915 is branching out into different realms of endeavor, it will not forget the able high school preparation that it received at the hands of a co-operative and sympathetic faculty.

Reminiscences

(Gulielma Ruth Crocker)

The citizens of Alameda County were very prompt to take advantage of the law authorizing school districts to unite in maintaining public high schools and in January 1892 the high school opened in Centerville. There was no delay for a building but the first story of the old Masonic hall was rented and fitted with about forty desks. The main room was not large so that these desks had to be placed in double rows but school furniture does not make the school and some 24 scholars gathered in that plain room. As three of these had been attending the Oakland high school advanced classes had to be formed and Miss G. R. Crocker was chosen to assist the principal Mr. W. H. Wentworth.

The front entrance, a hall five feet wide extending across the building had seats placed at one end for recitation. At the other end a small zinc lined box with a faucet and drain pipe made laboratory equipment for the first two physic classes. A three foot cupboard in the main room contained our laboratory apparatus and the library. A new set of Encyclopedias Britannica and a few books. This equipment meant opportunity and many learned the value of hard work and the satisfaction of succeeding and made preparation for a successful work at college.

The presence of a high school in our community has awakened greater interest in higher education and opened the road for many. It has also helped our township greatly by bringing together the young people giving opportunity for working together at school and later in township matters. During the summer of 1892 preparations were made for a new school building, and with the new year construction was begun. The work was rushed in spite of a very wet season and in March came the welcome day when we left the old quarters for the new building which for its time was fairly well equipped although the hasty construction and low price showed many weaknesses in its construction.

The next Spring our faithful clerk of the Board, Mr. Jarvis, attended to the planting of trees. The groups of eastern elms with their graceful branches, the prolific rows of walnuts and the oranges and palms were placed under his direction but looking on the present shady avenues protected by wind breaks, I remember the wind-swept field when empty nail kegs protected the young palms.

Tennis and football were introduced. A San Francisco boy, Irving White, brought the modern form of the latter to Centerville. After the first tackle Bart Thane stopped with "Gee, did I hurt you, Irv?" They soon learned how to give and take in the game and a strong and enthusiastic team was formed. Among these players were two who afterwards became famous at the University of California, playing in the decisive game which placed the football statue on the campus at Berkeley. Bart Thane at quarter and James Whipple on the line.

Their first game with an outside team was played in a mist that changed into a drizzle and their new suits were covered with mud and glory the mud coming first. They played many games with almost uniform success and football became an established game at the school. The teams were generally entertained at luncheon and a cordial good time resulted.

The first social event of the high school was a hallowe'en party and thereafter two other parties came each year. The dances were held in the Centerville town hall. A good pianist furnishing the music for a time as much enjoyed as the most elaborate function at Maple Hall.

A debating club included all the school and met bi-weekly and decided such momentous questions as woman's suffrage and gambling during the first year and a half of school.

One of the first athletic contests engaged in by the Union High School was a football game played at Irvington on December 16, 1893, with what was then known as Washington College. Few of the players had ever seen a football game and as for uniforms, they had none. The team appeared on the field clad in overalls with a bulge here and a bulge there where some fond sister, or perhaps, anxious mother, had sewed something in to serve as padding. The following composed the team: Ends, Bart Thane, Joe Jarvis; Tackles, George Emerson, Louis Decoto; Guards, Jess Overacker, Garrett Norris; Center, Justus Overacker; Quarter back, Eugene Matthews; Full back, Will Jarvis; Half backs, Harry Searles, James Whipple. The average age of the players was seventeen years, their average weight, 154 pounds.

While the game was not remarkable for the skill or team work shown by either side, there was all the excitement of a contest and, best of all, our High School won by a score of 8 to 0. Whipple and Searles each making a touchdown.

In the fall of '94 the football team was again organized with the following players: Ends, Louis Decoto, Eugene Matthews; Tackles, George Emerson, Justus Overacker; Guards, Matt Dixon, Garrett Norris; Center, Elvis Woods; Quarter back, Irving White; Full back, Bart Thane; Half backs, Harry Searles, James Whipple.

Regular football suits were secured, and under the coaching of Irving White, who had had considerable football experience at the Boys' High School of San Francisco, a system of training was adopted. This season many games were played with the High Schools and Academies situated around the bay, in nearly all of which our High School was victorious. It was during this season that the playing of Bart

Thane, Louis Decoto, Harry Searles, and James Whipple first attracted especial notice, they being recognized as ranking among the best High School players in the state.

During the fall of '93 and the spring of '94 a number of baseball games were played with neighboring schools, and in these games our High School was remarkably successful. The team was composed of: Pitcher, Joe Jarvis (Captain); Catcher, Garrett Norris; 1st base, James Whipple, 2nd base, Ezra Decoto; 3rd base, George Emerson, Right field, Fritz Jarvis; Center field, Clarence Martenstein; Left field, Bart Thane.

Perhaps the most remarkable game, and one that the High School never forgot, was played at Livermore with that High School on October 14, 1893. Through a mistake of our own score keeper it was made to appear at the end of the ninth inning that the score stood 12 to 12 when in reality it was 11 to 12 in our favor. In the extra inning both sides staged fierce batting rallies; but Livermore won, the score standing 17 to 15. The playing of Bart Thane, Garrett Norris, Joe Jarvis and James Whipple for our school was especially brilliant. The mistake of the score keeper was not discovered until several days later.

The first field day was held June 13, 1895, on the county road in front of the High School grounds. Among those taking part were Bart Thane, Louis Decoto, Frank Garcia, Will Peterson, Harry Haines, Lewis Rose, Justus Overacker, Eugene Stevenson, Jack Blacow, Fred Robertson, George Emerson, Max McCollough and Gus Nauert; but the memory of the writer is not clear as to the events in which each was distinguished.

On all occasions the teams, football and baseball alike, worked with one mind, and solid behind them, whether in victory or in defeat, stood the school. In looking back over the years that are past many pleasant happenings are recalled. Not the least among these memories are the luncheons served by the fair members of the school to the home and visiting teams. On these occasions our teachers, Miss Robinson and Miss Crocker, took leading parts and gave of their time freely to see that everything was properly arranged.

It is with a feeling of sadness that we reflect that we no longer meet two of the members of our athletic teams. Joe Jarvis and James Whipple have passed on but as we think back over the days of our comradeship with them we realize that we have rarely known two better and finer young men.

From 1895 to 1899, inclusive, there occurred the second of those cycles of football development, peculiar to this school, that has in each instance produced a rather remarkable team. This has, as a rule, been somewhat to the exclusion of other athletics but, I think, at no time as much so as during this period. Consequently, the story of the other activities is chiefly one of casual games with near-by clubs, schools, or individuals.

Tennis came second in importance, serving chiefly to fill the gap between the greatly prolonged foot-ball seasons. A mixed tennis club was successfully maintained during most of this period, winning many local victories and losing many. The young ladies of the club were especially proficient, and, if I remember rightly, were undefeated at either singles or doubles in any important games. They were, I believe, comparatively more expert in their class than the men in theirs. They gave the latter many a hard-fought practice game, though they, too, were above rather than below the average in skill.

This club was responsible for most of the informal festivities in the social life, both of the school and of the near-by towns, and it was this popular side-line of its activity that remained long in the memories of many of us,—now approaching the reminiscent age,—who have already forgotten dates and scores, but still remember the make-up of many a "tennis dance" program.

In track and field our light was kindled on two occasions,—in 1896 and 1899,—but it was quickly extinguished. Against the training of the city schools we were helpless, and qualified with the cripples, diamonds, perhaps, but rough, certainly. It needs no record.

Probably our weakest department was baseball. The period usually given to that activity was taken up by foot-ball until the weather got altogether too hot, and then tennis was started. Before the graduation of the class of '96, however, there was a very creditable team, but that class took with it most of the players and practically all of the interest in the game. After 1896 there were about two baseball enthusiasts in the school and they did their best to make a place for their pet game, but outside of a lonesome and occasional "play-catch" between the two, there was little interest taken. We sometimes had inter-class games, consisting of a sort of glorified "one-old-cat," in which many of the players would forget and try to fall on the ball or catch it in their arms like a football. But our fame extended about as far as the school yard. The latter was then much smaller than it is now.

In the minor sports, such as owed their spice to bent pins, match heads, and the like, we were considered quite proficient by those in the best position to judge—our teachers. They sometimes made statements along those general lines, being somewhat interested therein, themselves. Under this head of minor sports, mention is due to the so-called "Vigilance Committee." This public spirited organization, composed of a few restless spirits of the class of '99, undertook, with the aid of the watering trough, public approbation, and other necessary equipment, to maintain discipline among the other students. As was to be expected, it was more convenient for the teachers to have direct charge of deportment during class periods, but this arrangement left considerable leeway for the Committee's activity. It can easily be seen that this plan relieved the former of much responsibility. They often made statements about these matters, also—statements in private and after school hours, that were naturally strictly confidential. So they can not be recorded here.

Moreover, as these innocent pastimes would be neither understood by the modern scholar, nor countenanced by the teacher, a description of details also may profitably be omitted.

During the last two years of the period the various teams were loyally supported and given great aid and encouragement by the Centerville Athletic Club, which had its well-equipped clubhouse and third-of-a-mile track adjoining the High School grounds. These were put at the service of the teams, and for this and the support of the whole community we felt much gratitude. In the games of the final football season we could always be sure of the moral support of at least two enthusiastic camp followers—the school janitor and our colored handyman and rub-down artist. They were reputed to have won many a gold piece on the home-team against-all-comers system.

In football, the fall of 1895 marked the beginning of the slump after "The Big Team" of the year before. There really was a strong team, but being practically the second team of the previous season, it lacked prestige and confidence, and suffered from inevitable comparison with its great predecessor. The event that gave it its undeserved notoriety was a defeat by Oakland High School, after the latter had refused the year before before to play our Big Team. It was a real licking that they gave us, and they went out of their way to rub it in, as there was considerable hard feeling left over from our attempts to force a game with them the year before. This was bitter medicine, but it was perhaps of a tonic nature, and we began again to build from the bottom up—while through all our grinding work we saw visions of a defeated Oakland High. For its realization we were willing to work and wait. There was no thought at that time of a team that might play with the best, but merely of one that sometime might beat Oakland.

Each season we played what teams we could, but got no really first class opponents, as these, through membership in the Academic Athletic League, all had their schedules filled. There was usually a game each season with Livermore or Hayward High Schools, also, sometimes with local town-teams organized for the occasion. But almost all our football knowledge was developed through switching one side of our line against the other, and then using the backs to drive through that side.

All our spare time, as well as some that the teachers contended was not so spare, was given to thinking or playing football. When the real game was too much out of season for even the most incurable cranks, there was what we called the "kicking game" consisting chiefly of running until you couldn't stand, taking a few breaths and doing it again. This was undoubtedly a great factor in the team's success as it invariably "outwinded" its opponents.

There were not enough pupils in those days to furnish even part of a second team, and as it was, every able-bodied man in the school was impressed into service. This furnished a full team and two substitutes for our battle-line. Luckily, we were pretty tough and used no substitutes until the final game with Belmont, when we had to replace both tackles. With one more out, we should have had to finish the game with ten men.

After the rather successful season of 1898 we entered the Academic Athletic League, chiefly to get a crack at Oakland High. We knew that we were then at our best, and that it would be many years before we could again hope to challenge successfully that noted team.

We met October 14th. They, undoubtedly, were over-confident—we certainly were not. The irreverent, indeed, alleged that we were scared stiff. Nevertheless, after the first awful minutes we found that they, also, were only human, and in the reaction from our first alleged fright, we scored twice. In the second half, we merely held our ground, but though we scored no more, neither did they, and so it ended, 10 to 0. Perhaps, after all, they were as scared as we.

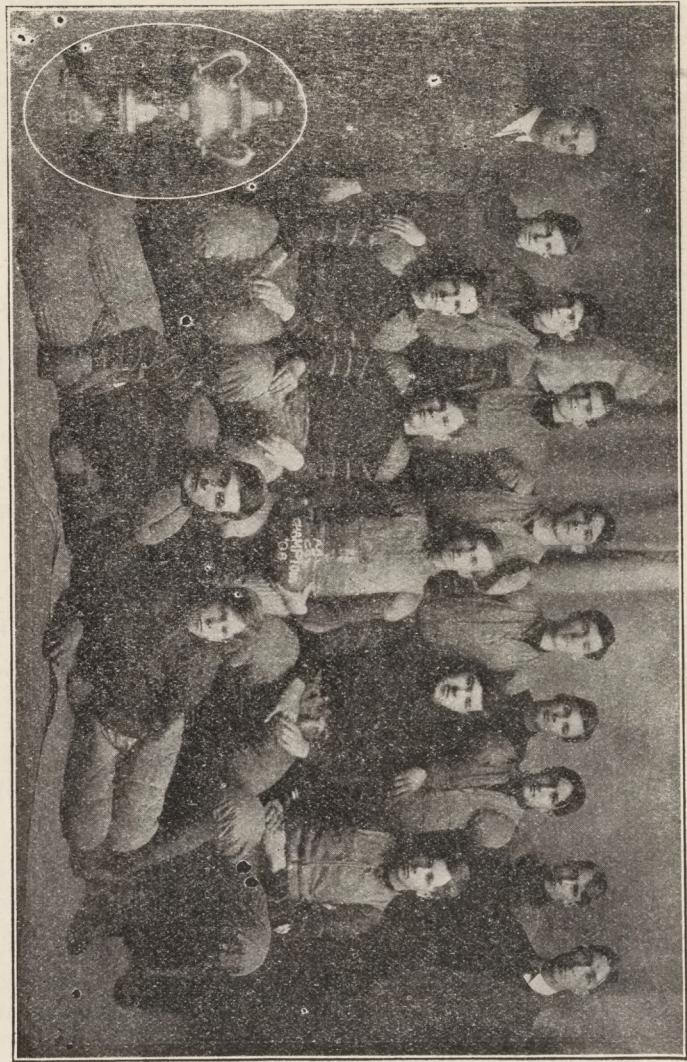

Two weeks later, against Berkeley High, we ran up a score of sixteen points in the first twenty minutes and they refused to play any more. This put us in the semi-finals against Lowell, which had won in the San Francisco Sub-league. In preparation for this game we beat Boone's Academy, 12 to 6, in a very hard-fought contest.

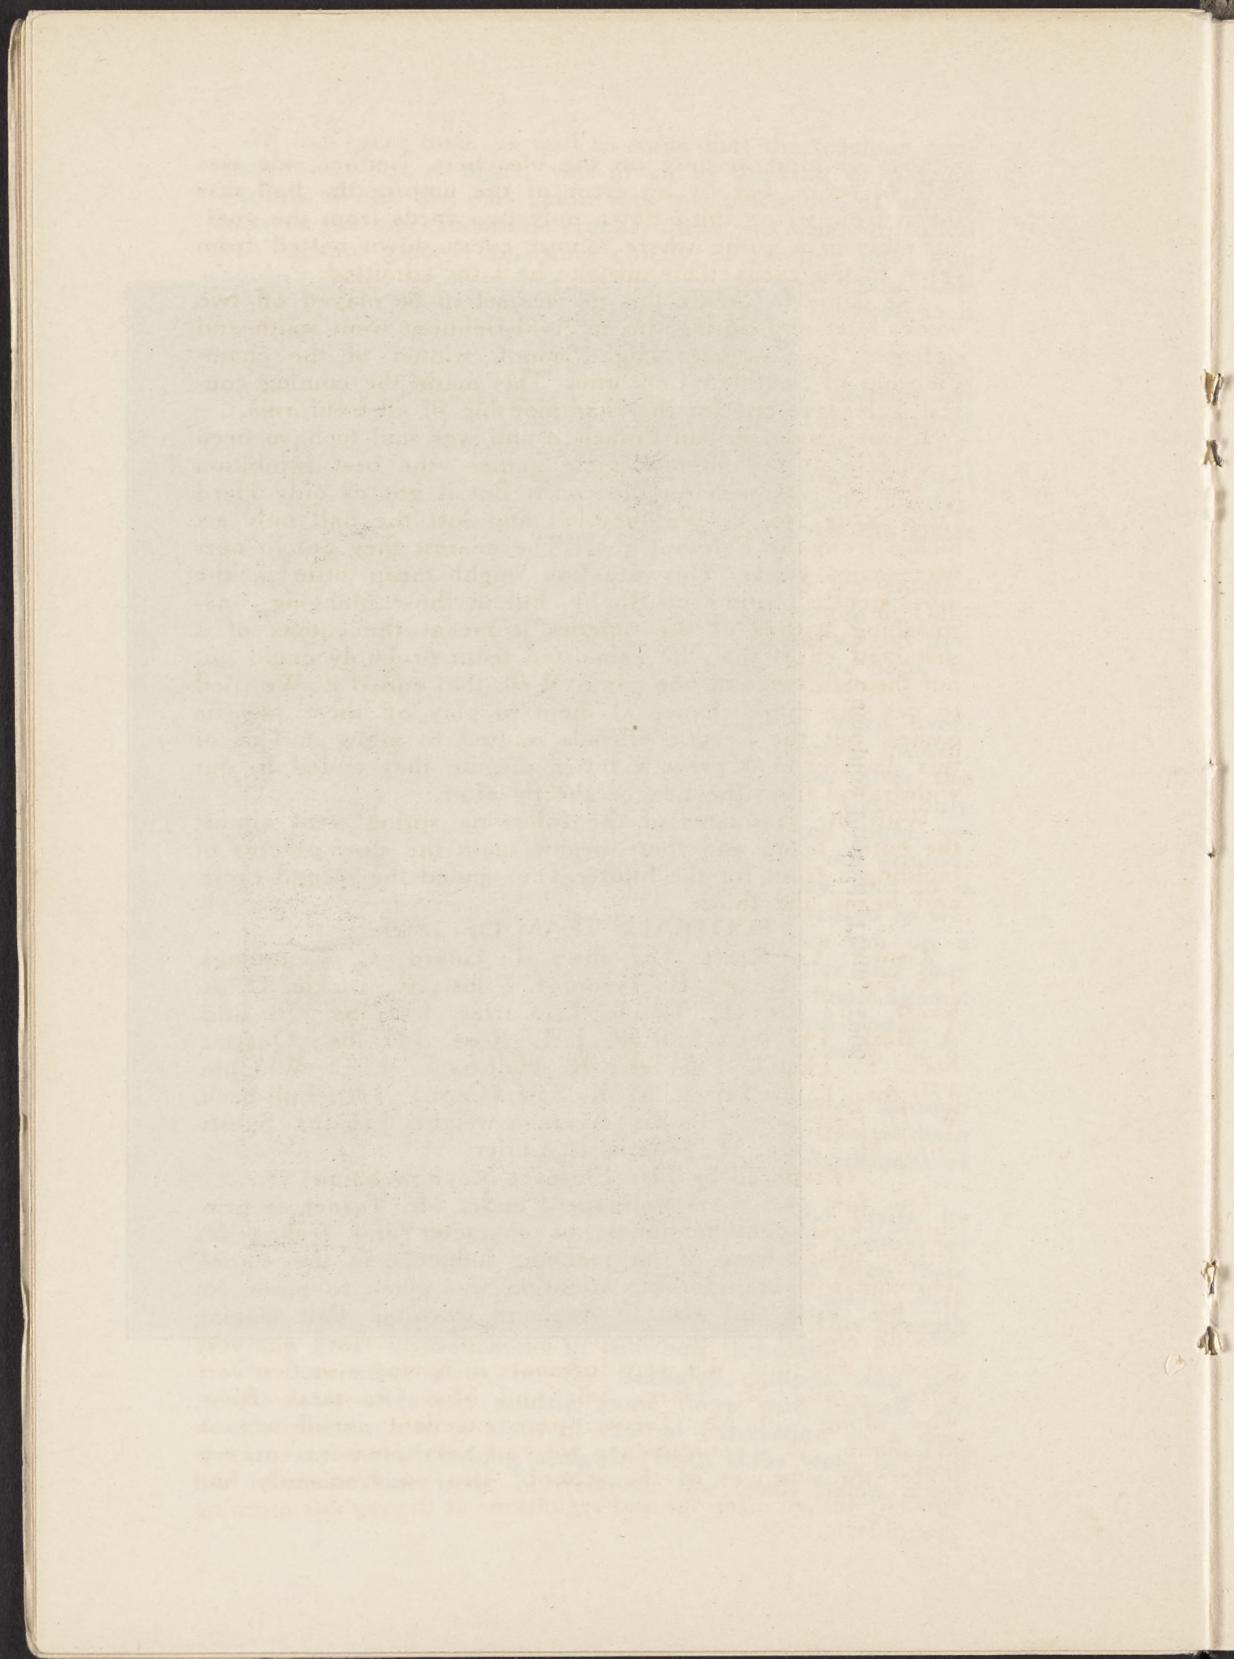

At Berkeley, in a sea of mud, the teams wallowed through the semi-finals. But we were raised on mud and trimmed them of eleven points to their five, greatly to the astonishment of everyone, particularly ourselves.

Now that the team had won through to the finals, its stock rose greatly. Through the assistance of a number of local friends, who had loyally backed the team even from its small beginnings, we were able to get a coach, Jack Craig, end on the great U. C. team of 1898-99. This brought about a great improvement in foot-ball technique.

On November 25th, on the Berkeley campus, and two weeks later after our muddy game there with Lowell, we fought Belmont to a state of mutual exhaustion in a desperate and heartbreaking struggle. Both sides were brilliant on offensive but weak in defence, the result being many attacks of mild insanity on the bleachers. Neither side was able to score, but by an error of the umpire the ball was taken from us on third down only two yards from the goal; and this in a game where almost every down netted from three to ten yards. This mistake he later admitted.

The game to decide this tie was set to be played off two weeks later and during this interval Belmont went south and defeated Los Angeles High School, winner of the championship of Southern California. This made the coming contest a decisive one for the championship of all California.

It was played in San Francisco and was said to have been—outside of the intercollegiate games—the best exhibition of football yet seen on the coast. But it got us only Hard Luck Story No. 2. We fumbled and lost the ball only six inches from the Belmont goal! The nearest they got to ours was seven yards. This situation might mean little in the more gentle pastime of Rugby, but in those plunging, line-smashing battles of the nineties it meant the climax of a sustained effort that the exhausted team probably could not put through twice in one game. Well, that ended it. We tried to get one more chance at them to play off these two tie games, but the League officials refused to allow it. Out of this disagreement grew a bitter dispute that ended in our withdrawal from the League shortly after.

With the graduates of the following spring went almost the entire team, and there began again the slow process of building a team for the future. Thus ended the second cycle, and began the third.

— Class '98

Our first two years were spent under Mr. Turner as principal whose gentlemanliness of character and feeling for artistic things were of far reaching influence in the school. Through him considerable attention was given to music for the first time and also to freehand drawing. Part singing was developed and the chorus singing of the school was very good at this time. We were fortunate in having also two very gifted pupils, Mr. Harry Salz and Miss Constance Rose, who, along with Mr. Turner, were excellent performers on the piano. As a consequence we had very pleasant concerts under the auspices of the school. Also we frequently had special musical offerings and recitations at the regular morning assembly.

Dramatics also received a very lasting impression from the hands of Miss Maida Castelhun, a most excellent teacher and a woman of rare charm and ability. At one time the public was invited on Friday afternoons when in addition to music and recitation we enacted scenes from Shakespeare. As a rule the scenes were well done and fostered a dramatic interest that bore fruit in our later ambitious undertaking, "As You Like It."

Athletics as always received a large share of attention and during this time we had some of the best football teams the school has produced. It was not uncommon to play Lowell High School, Oakland High School and others of the large high schools around the bay. Baseball and tennis too came in for a good share of interest. The girls played basketball to some extent but not in an organized way with match games.

One year we held a joint picnic with Livermore High School but the failure of Livermore to come to the place appointed and the consequent inconvenience kept us from trying the experiment again. A moonlight picnic worthy of mention was held in Niles canyon at the close of the school year 1897. Part of the fun was in some graduating where diplomas were conferred for faithful attendance upon two horses who had scarcely missed a day in four years. One horse was driven by Tony Dutra of Warm Springs and the other by Ezra and Louis Decoto.

The big social features of the school year were two dances always held in the Centerville town hall, the Thanksgiving party given by the whole school and the senior dance given by the graduating class.

Our class also was indebted to Mrs. Allen, then one of the trustees, for a very pleasant social evening at her home during our senior year, also the whole school was entertained in a very hospitable manner by Mrs. Gregory at the Gregory house at a farewell party to Mr. Turner who had made his home at the hotel while he was principal of the school.

During our last two years we had a very able principal, Mr. Frederick Liddeke, whose high standards of scholarship and thoroughness of work gained for the school an enviable reputation. His work in Physics especially was along advanced and to some extent original lines. One cannot pass without speaking, too, of Miss Crocker, for many years teacher of scientific subjects with so much enthusiasm for her work and such a warm personal interest in her pupils; of Miss Reynolds our very able Greek and Latin teacher whose fine scholarship and enthusiasm for Greek were rarely found even sixteen years ago.

Toward the close of our senior year it was decided to give "As You Like It" in an out-of-door production as part of the graduating exercises of our class. Mrs. Clara Patterson offered the use of her grounds and a more appropriate setting could not have been desired for the Forest of Arden. In the open glade in the wild tangle of woods to the West of the Patterson house an amphitheater was improvised. Working under the direction of Miss Castelhun the cast finally attained a proficiency that was highly creditable for high school students and the undertaking was more successful even than we had anticipated. I doubt if this play so often chosen for out-of-door production, has ever been given in more true-to-nature surroundings. Both those who were in it and those who saw it have looked back upon it as a most delightful memory.

Our formal commencement was held on the evening before, May 27, 1898, in the assembly hall and consisted of musical numbers and an address by Prof. Leon Richardson of the University of California.

On the evening of May 31 the graduating class gave their dance in the town hall and so ended our career as a class of Union High School No. 2. We have not realized perhaps our very ambitious motto, "Ad astra per aspera" but we have certainly met our difficulties if we haven't reached the stars and so far as I know the later history of the individuals of the class they have gone on with a good deal of the patience and quiet perseverance that was as much as anything a characteristic of their high school days.

1903-7

When school began in August 1903, we found that there were only a few who had played football before but as there was a large class of students entering, we decided to have a team. After practising a few afternoons we played a game with Anderson's Academy and were defeated. We played only a couple of games this year.

Next year we had quite a few men who were on the team the year before and of course with the experience gained the team did much better, playing several games and winning more than we lost.

Beginning the year 1905 we still had most of the same players on hand and we secured the services of Mr. W. D. Patterson as coach. This was really the beginning of the team that finally won the A. A. L. championship in the fall of 1906. We played a number of games this year meeting with fair success and gaining a great deal of experience through the coaching of Mr. Patterson.

In August 1906 we joined the A. A. L. and started practising for the League series with Mr. Patterson as our coach. We played several practise games winning them all. The first League game was with Anderson Academy and the score was a tie. We next played Berkeley High winning by a score of 12 to 0. On the following Saturday we went to Alameda where we played Alameda High School winning from them also. The hardest game for the championship of the Alameda County title came on the following Saturday when we played Oakland High at Centerville and won after a hard game. As Lick High School had won the title of the San Francisco Sub-League we played for the Championship at Stege one week later and after a hard fight won by the score of 4 to 0.

On Thanksgiving Day we played Woodland High School at Woodland for the Championship of Northern California and met our first defeat of the season losing by the score of 12 to 6.

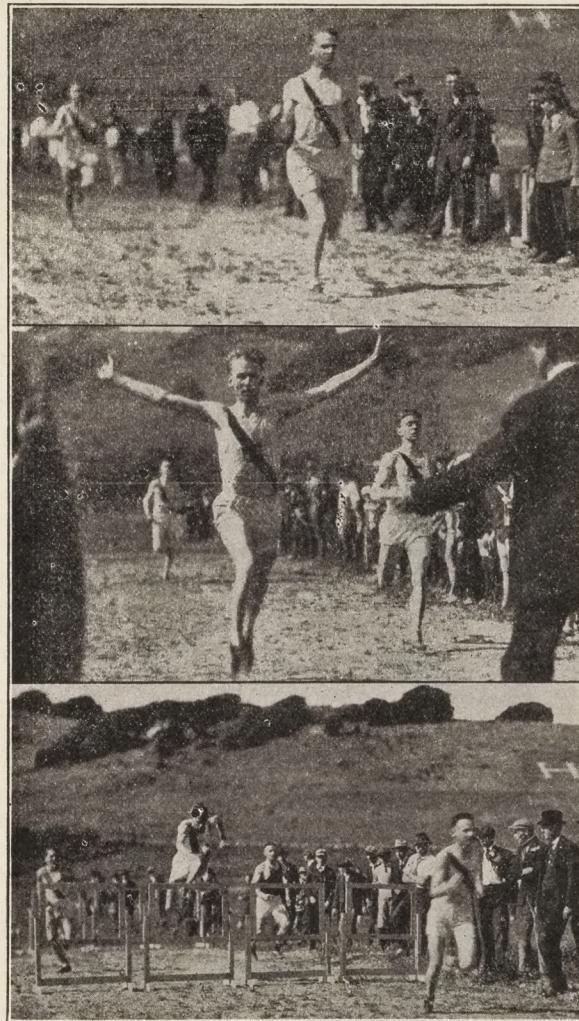

We also had a baseball team entered in the League series but at baseball we were not very successful and lost most of the games.

Graduation took from us most members of the Championship Football Team of 1906. In 1907 we did little in football owing to lack of material. However, a team was formed, captained by Howard Houston. In games played with Fruitvale High and Anderson Academy, our team was defeated. A team was formed in 1908, with Hawley Beard captain. In two games with Anderson Academy, the first was a tie and the second our victory. No team was formed in 1909 or 1910, the only football indulged in being the "old kicking game," played in the noon intermissions.

In the year '07 the school entered in the A. A. L. a team in cross country running. With the following team we finished in fourth place: Clement Renouf (Capt.), Charles Bez, Hawley Beard, Harold Rodeutsch.

The following year the school won third place, the team being: Ralph Feusier (Capt.), Harold Bodeutsch, Austin Ellis, Charles Bez, Hawley Beard.

In 1909, the team won second place, this being the last cross country race of the A. A. L. The team: Charles Bez (Capt.), Harold Bodeutsch, Lloyd Mickle, Edward Falk, Hawley Beard, Earl Trimingham.

During these years track athletics had been given little attention as the school had no track. In the year 1909 an interclass track meet was held on the newly graded railroad right-of-way back of the school. While no records were broken, this meet served to arouse interest in track affairs and in 1910 a track was built in front of the school building.

Our baseball team entered the A. A. L. in '07 but lost all the league games. We defeated our old rivals, Anderson Academy, eleven to ten. The Alumni went to defeat fifteen to four.

In 1908 we again took Anderson's scalp 3-2.

The Team. Preston (Capt.), Pitcher; Falk, Catcher; Basler, 1st Base; Peters, 2nd Base; Houston, 3rd Base; Bodeutsch, Short Stop; Moller, Left Field; Trimingham, Center Field; C. Bez, Right Field.

In 1909, Anderson defeated our team, with the aid of their Faculty. Two games were lost to Hayward owing to lack of team work.

The Team. Preston (Capt.), Pitcher; Falk, Catcher; Basler, 1st Base; Peters, 2nd Base; Richmond, 3rd Base; Bodeutsch, Short Stop; Trimingham, Left Field; Bez, Center Field; Bunting, Right Field.

In the fall of '09 another team was formed. The best game was played with Anderson which resulted in a tie after battling thirteen innings. Unfortunately the game had to be called on account of darkness.

The Games. Aug. 7-'09, Anderson 6, C. H. S. 8; Sept. 10-'09, Anderson 5, C. H. S. 5; Sept. 18-'09, Berkeley 4, C. H. S. 0; Oct. 13-'09, Berkeley 4, C. H. S. 6; Mar. 10-'10, Anderson 1, C. H. S. 3.

The Team. Rogers, Bunting, Pitchers; Falk, Catcher; Basler, 1st Base; Peters, 2nd Base; Hafner, 3rd Base; Bodeutsch, Short Stop; Trimingham, Left Field; Bez, Centerfield; Coffaney, Robie, Right Field.

It was in '07 that the first boys' basketball team was formed. A few games were played with nearby schools. It was in '09 that basketball became more successful.

The games that season resulted as follows: Livermore 8, C. H. S. 12; Com. High 15, C. H. S. 19; Livermore, Default, C. H. S. 2; Campbell 19, C. H. S. 32; Cogswell 40, C. H. S. 9; St. Mary's 33; C. H. S. 11; O. P. High 73, C. H. S. 12.

The Team. Forwards, Bodeutsch, Falk; Guards, Blacow, Basler; Center, Alsford; Subs., Murphy, Bonner.

A girl's basketball team was also formed in '07, being coached by Miss Isobel Whipple, a former player from Mills College. The next year, Miss D. T. Spencer, a former player in the University of California, became a teacher in the school and since then has regularly coached the girls' teams. During the two following years many games were played, the High School getting a large share of victories. The season 1910-1911 found the game at its best. The consistent practising of the girls and the able coaching of Miss Spencer, built up a team, which after winning all its practise games, entered the A. A. L. After winning the Championship of the Alameda Co. Sub-League, and defeating the strong Turlock seven (then Champions of the Cent. Calif. League) the team met Lowell for the championship of the A. A. L. In a very doubtful and unsatisfactory match, our team was defeated.

The Team. Centers, Helen Baldwin, Bessie Bayley, Marion Lynch; Guards, Hattie Baldwin, Aloyse; Forwards, Doris

The Games. Hayward, 9; C. H. S., 19; Lowell 16, C. H. S. 25; San Jose 4; C. H. S. 28; San Jose 2, C. H. S. 35; Santa Clara 17, C. H. S. 17.

League Games. O. P. High 1; C. H. S. 62; Turlock 10, C. H. S. 28; Lowell 23, C. H. S. 19.

The following year our team was again quite successful, losing but one game.

The Games. Lick 12; C. H. S. 20; Lick 13, C. H. S. 16; Univ. Pac. 13, C. H. S. 18; San Jose 25; C. H. S. 23; Berkeley 6; C. H. S. 16.

The Team. Centers, Marion Lynch (Capt.), Josephine Blacow, Bessie Bayley; Guards, Hattie Baldwin, Constance Lewis, Tessie Whitfield; Forwards, Dorris Jacobus, Helen Blacow.

The year 1910 marked the passing of the A. A. L. Mismanagement and lack of interest led to the schools about the bay withdrawing.

During the years of the A. A. L. we country schools had the disadvantage of meeting teams from schools many times our size. Again the city teams came more for the trip to the country rather than the sport.

At this time, our Principal, Mr. Wright, came to our rescue and suggested a league for country schools, that we may meet more equal competitors. Invitations to form such a league were sent to Anderson Academy, Livermore, and Hayward. Delegates met and the C. A. C. A. League was formed with rules similar to those of the A. A. L.

The formation of this league marked a new era in the athletics of C. H. S. The contests became exceedingly interesting.

The first series of the new league was the basketball series in the spring of '11. After defeating Hayward and Anderson, our team was defeated in a very exciting contest by Livermore.

The Games. St. Jos. Sod. 20, C. H. S. 30; Anderson 10, C. H. S. 36; Livermore 17, C. H. S. 15; Hayward 26, C. H. S. 32.

The Team. Forwards, Jacobus (Capt.), Hafner; Guards, Trimingham, Murphy; Center, E. Falk; Subs., Wilkinson, Bonner.

The next series of the spring of '11 was the baseball series. Hayward, Livermore, and Centerville tied for first honors, the tie not being played off on account of lack of time before the track meet.

The Games. Livermore, 15, C. H. S. 2; Hayward 6, C. H. S. 9; Anderson 2, C. H. S. 10.

The Team. Falk, Pitcher; Hafner, Catcher; Bunting, 1st Base; Jacobus, 2nd Base; Trimingham, 3rd base; Robie, Short Stop; Calhoun, Left Field; Wilkinson, Center Field; Bonner, Right Field.

On May 9th, 1911, the first C. A. C. A. L. track meet was held. At this sport our school showed its ability when we took the meet with a total of 80 1-3 points, Livermore being second with 24 and Hayward third with 19 19 2-3. Anderson did not take part.

Winners and Records. 100 yd. Dash, Falk (C), Time 10 2-5 seconds; 220 yd. Dash, George, Hafner (C), 26 seconds; 120 yd. Hurdles, Orpin, Hafner, Jacobus (C), 20 1-5 seconds; Mile Run, Wilkinson (C), 5 min. 27 sec.; 440 yd. Dash, Trimingham (C), 59 sec.; 880 yd. Run, Trimingham (C), 2 min. 25 sec.; 220 yd. Hurdles, Sweet (L), 31 sec.; Relay, Centerville (Falk, Trimingham, George, Bonner), Livermore second, Hayward third; Hammer Throw, Bettencourt (C), 112 ft. 5 in.; Pole Vault, Falk (C), 9 ft. 2 in.; High Jump, Long (H), 5 ft. 3 in.; Broad Jump, Trimingham (C), 19 ft. 7 in.; Shot Put, Bettencourt (C), 36 ft. 1 in.

In the early fall of 1912 the football squad consisting of about thirty members held its first practice under the guidance of H. L. Scott of Niles. After a short practice season the league games commenced in which we won all our preliminary games and defeated Hayward for the championship by a score of 6-3.

The playing of George, Rogers, Meyers and Buchardi featured throughout the season. The team was ably captained by Andrew Logan and managed by Ben Murphy.

The Team. Forwards: Murphy, Buchardi, Meyers, Tyson, Bell, Hunt, Barnard, Collins, Calhoun; Backs: Logan, Dassel, George, Falk, Rogers, Hawley, Wauhab, Lewis.

The list of games and their results were as follows:

St. Mary's 6, Centerville 3; Livermore 0, Centerville 0; Hayward 3, Centerville 17; Livermore 3, Centerville 6; Hayward 3, Centerville 6 (Championship).

The members of the team were George, Murphy, Logan, Hawley and Burchardi. Ben Murphy was captain of the team and Sidney Tyson manager.

The baseball team was selected after a few weeks of practice and proved to be a pennant winner. The team was one of the best balanced which the school has ever had, and won all its games in admirable shape. The battery work of Meyers and Hafner was the outstanding feature during the season.

The members of the team and their positions: Hafner, Catcher; Meyers, Pitcher; George, First Base; Calhoun, Sec-

The management of the team was in the hands of Ben Murphy and the captain was Earl Meyers.

The track team of 1912 was without the services of a coach but the members shortly worked themselves into condition for the league meet. In an interclass held in March the Juniors came out the victors with a total of  $50\frac{1}{2}$  points, Sophmores second with 22 and the Freshmen last with  $8\frac{1}{2}$ . The Seniors did not enter a team. George, Hafner, and Lowrie stared for the winning team.

The league meet was held in Centerville and participated in by only Hayward and Centerville. The meet was easily won by Centerville, the final score being 71-38. Four league records were broken, two by Hafner (C) in the hurdles, one by George (C) in the quarter mile and the other by J. Lee (H) in the half mile. Urban George was captain and Ben Murphy manager.

The following men took part in the league meet: George, Hafner, Falk, Yeaman, Peach, Lowrie, Hawley, Ellsworth, Larson, Nicol, Tyson, Dassel, Bell, Burchardi.

The football team of 1913, according to almost everyone's opinion, was the best which the school has ever produced. In the championship game which was lost by a score of 5-3 there is still the prevailing feeling among the Centerville supporters that Burchardi really converted the try made by George and that the score should have been a tie. J. R. Case was in charge of the team and much of the success was due to him.

The line-up: Forwards: Burchardi, Collins, Meyers, Hunt, Maciel, Bell, Calhoun, Barnard, Nicol; Backs, Dassel, Falk, George, Hafner, Hawley, Peach, Nunes, Wauhab, Lewis. Burchardi, Collins, Meyers, Calhoun, George, Falk, Hafner and Hawley played a consistent game throughout the season.

The following are the results of the games played: Mission 0, Centerville 11; Palo Alto 2nd 13, Centerville 3; Stockton 5, Centerville 6; Livermore 0, Centerville 3; Hayward 0, Centerville 0; Hayward 3, Centerville 3; Hayward 5, Centerfield 3 (Championship). Sidney Tyson managed the team and Urban George was captain.

As soon as the weather permitted the baseball squad began practice. There was plenty of good material and a fine team was picked which consisted of: Hawley, Catcher; Meyers, Pitcher; Valencia, First Base; Falk, Second Base; Calhoun, Short Stop; Fields, Third Base; Nunes, Left Field; George, Center Field; Collins, Right Field.

A few practice games were played with Anderson's Academy which we won and then we entered into a successful season in the league.

Livermore forfeited to us and we defeated Anderson and Hayward and then later defeated Hayward for the championship 5-2.

Vertner Calhoun captained the team and Marston Dassel was manager. Meyers pitching and the good all around work of the rest of the members was responsible for the winning of the games.

For the first time the track team had a coach who could be with them every day and who was capable of giving them many pointers which they quickly picked up. Coach Case selected the following men to take part in the league meet held at Centerville participated in by all members of the league: Burchardi (Capt.), Meyers (manager), Tyson, Dassel, Falk, George, Hawley, Bell, Peach, Lowrie and Ellsworth.

We easily gathered the honors and won more points than the other three schools combined. The meet was featured by good records in all events and was very keenly contested. The following records were tied and broken: George (C) tied, Falk's record of 10:2 in the 100 yd. dash, Peach (C) lowered the High hurdle record to 17:2, Meyers (C) put the shot 39 feet 8 inches for a new record and Peach (C) broke the old record in the high jump by leaping 5 ft. 4 in.

At the opening of the season of 1914, altho the football team lost heavily by graduation, Coach Case soon assembled a team which kept up the standard. A great deal of interest was shown in practice and everyone worked hard to develop a winning team. The season as a whole was very satisfactory and altho we lost the championship we made a game fight.

The season was a long one and the following games were played: Mission 0, Centerville 11; Palo Alto 2nd 11, Centerville 8; San Jose 2nd 0, Centerville 14; Santa Clara 17, Centerville 0; Hayward 5, Centerville 9; Livermore 0, Centerville 13; Richmond 6, Centerville 3; Hayward 16, Centerville 9 (Championship). The team was captained by Leopold Falk and managed by Kenneth Hawley. The members of the team were: Forwards, Collins, Blacow, May, Snow, Hawes, Zwissig, Hunt, Bond, Barnard, Yeaman, Norris; Backs, Lewis, Falk, Hawley, Wauhab, Nunes, Valencia, Logan, Rose.

The baseball team being reinforced by the new material which had come to school soon started one of the most successful seasons any baseball team has had. Our battery consisted of two Freshmen and they did creditable work throughout the entire season.

The results of the games during the seasons were as follows:

Newark All Stars 4, Centerville 7; Livermore 0, Centerville 9; Hayward 2, Centerville 3; Richmond 2, Centerville 7; Hayward 2, Centerville 13 (Championship). Edward Ellsworth managed the team and Leopold Falk was captain.

The track team lost the services of Coach Case and had to work without a coach during most of the season, however a winning team was developed. The league meet was the closest ever held. It was participated in by Livermore, Hayward, Richmond and Centerville. We defeated Hayward for first place by only  $\frac{1}{2}$  point. The 120 lb. team did very creditable work and it was largely through their efforts that we won. Falk, Hawley, Wauhab, and Rose were the largest point winners during the season. The following men were on the team: Hawley (Capt.), Ellsworth (mgr.), Falk, Wauhab, Zwissig, Costa, May, Logan, Bond. 120 lb. team: Rose, Hellwig, Emery, Benbow.

At the league meet the following records were broken: Sangmaster (L) ran the quarter mile in 57 sec. Day high jumped 5 ft.  $4\frac{1}{2}$  in. and pole vaulted 11 ft. 2 in. which were new records for both these events.

The athletic season of 1915-16 loomed up as a bright one with the addition of Mr. Weller and Mr. Havens to our faculty. The football squad was in their hands and after a great deal of hard work a team was selected which after a very successful preliminary season fell down miserably in the championship game. After defeating Richmond earlier in the season at Centerville 14-0, we were defeated for the championship at Richmond 6-0.

The men who made up the team were: Forwards, Blacow, Barnard, May, Costa, Carr, Snow, Hawes, Norris, Valencia; Backs, Lewis, F. Zwissig, J. Zwissig, Falk, Logan, Mickle, Bend, Rose.

The team was well balanced and played hard in every game. The game with Stockton in which we were defeated 3-0 was one of the hardest fought games ever played on our field. The team was managed by Leopold Falk and Richard Blacow was captain.

The results of the games played: Mission 0, Centerfield 26; Palo Alto 2nd 6, Centerfield 3; San Jose 2nd 0, Centerfield 14; San Jose 2nd 8, Centerfield 5; Livermore 5, Centerville 5; Richmond 0, Centerville 14; Hayward 0, Centerville 30; Richmond 6, Centerville 0 (Championship).

With only two of last year's members missing the outlook of base ball season was very bright. The team was coached by E. V. Weller and developed into one of the best base ball teams the school has had in recent years. Owing to bad weather only a few games could be played but our superiority to the other league teams was easily shown.

The results of the games were as follows: Lick-Wilmerding 5, Centerville 0; Richmond 1, Centerville 4; Hayward 0, Centerville 7; Hayward 0, Centerville 13. Joe Valencia was captain and Leopold Falk was manager.

THE PRESENT SCHOOL

A history of Washington Union High School from its organization in 1892 would illustrate the development of secondary education in California during the past twenty-five years. When the school was organized, its courses of study and methods of instruction represented the most advanced of the time. With the changing conditions of the past quarter of a century the school has changed so that now instruction is offered in nearly all the newer lines of work as well as in the old. Hampered, though it is by the lack of room and accommodation poorly arranged for modern work still the best possible use is made of the facilities that it has.

Though the school still offers the old classical course, the last class in Greek was in 1912. Latin, however, holds its own well. During the present year some 72 pupils or 60 per cent of the total enrollment were found in the Latin classes. Much emphasis is laid on English, four years work in this department being required of all graduates. Special attention, too, is given to history, the attempt being made not merely to teach something of the record of the past but also to study the actual conditions in the great nations at the present time. Industrial and social development is emphasized.

The school offers five courses of study: Classical, Literary, Scientific, Commercial, and Agricultural. Substitution, under the direction of the principal, is freely allowed, the attempt being made to fit the course to the pupil rather than the pupil to the course. However, four years of English, some Mathematics and United States History are required of all, whether regular or special.

The following is a brief statement of the work in the different departments:

Language:

Greek. There has been no call for Greek for several years.

Latin. Four years work is offered.

French and German. In modern languages, the aim is to train in the essentials of grammar, to develop the pupil's vocabulary and to give some slight acquaintance with the literature of the language studied. While a reading knowledge is the main object, some attention is given to conversation and writing.

English. The object of the work in English literature is primarily to develop a love and appreciation for literature; to give a wider and richer outlook on the beautiful and finer things of life as given in the masterpieces of literature; to instil some idea of the forms of poetry and prose; and to study something of the place in history of the great literary movements and great writers.

In Composition the aim is to train in accuracy, clearness and force. Working through subjects in which the pupils are interested, the emphasis is placed on spelling, grammar and the formal side of speaking and writing.

Mathematics.

Algebra. Two units of work are offered as listed in the University Entrance requirements, subjects 3, 4a, and 4a 2, subject.

Geometry. Plane geometry is given in the second year and Solid geometry in the third year of the course.

Trigonometry. Plane Trigonometry is given in the second semester of the Senior year.

Science.

Physics. Physics is a fourth year subject. The aim is to give the main laws of the physical universe, with as much of the practical bearing of these as possible. Much attention is given to modern advances in science.

Chemistry. In chemistry the object is to give the laws of chemical combination. Emphasis is laid on the chemical composition of the common things about us.

General Science. General Science is a first year course. Its aim is to outline the various physical science, especially as a foundation for agriculture.

History.

Ancient. Ancient History is a first year course. It covers the period from the dawn of history to about 1000 A. D.

M. & M. Mediaeval and Modern History is open to third year students. Much emphasis is placed on governments and conditions of Modern Europe.

U. S. United States History is a fourth year subject. Civil government is emphasized.

Agriculture.

Agriculture, is organized to fit the needs of the prospective farmers. The general principles of agriculture are given. Much time is given to soil testing, study of breeds and stock raising, care of poultry, milk testing, etc. Visits to nearby farms and dairies are made.

Manual Training.

The aim of Manual Training is to train in the use of tools and to enable students to acquire skill in ordinary operations. Instruction in the use of power machinery is given. In addition to the drill work, opportunity is given for the manufacture of furniture.

Home Economics.

In Home Economics about half of the time during the first year, is given to cooking and simple food chemistry. The other half is given to sewing. In the second year, sanitation, house decoration, house management, the more advanced principles of food chemistry as well as advanced sewing are given.

Commercial.

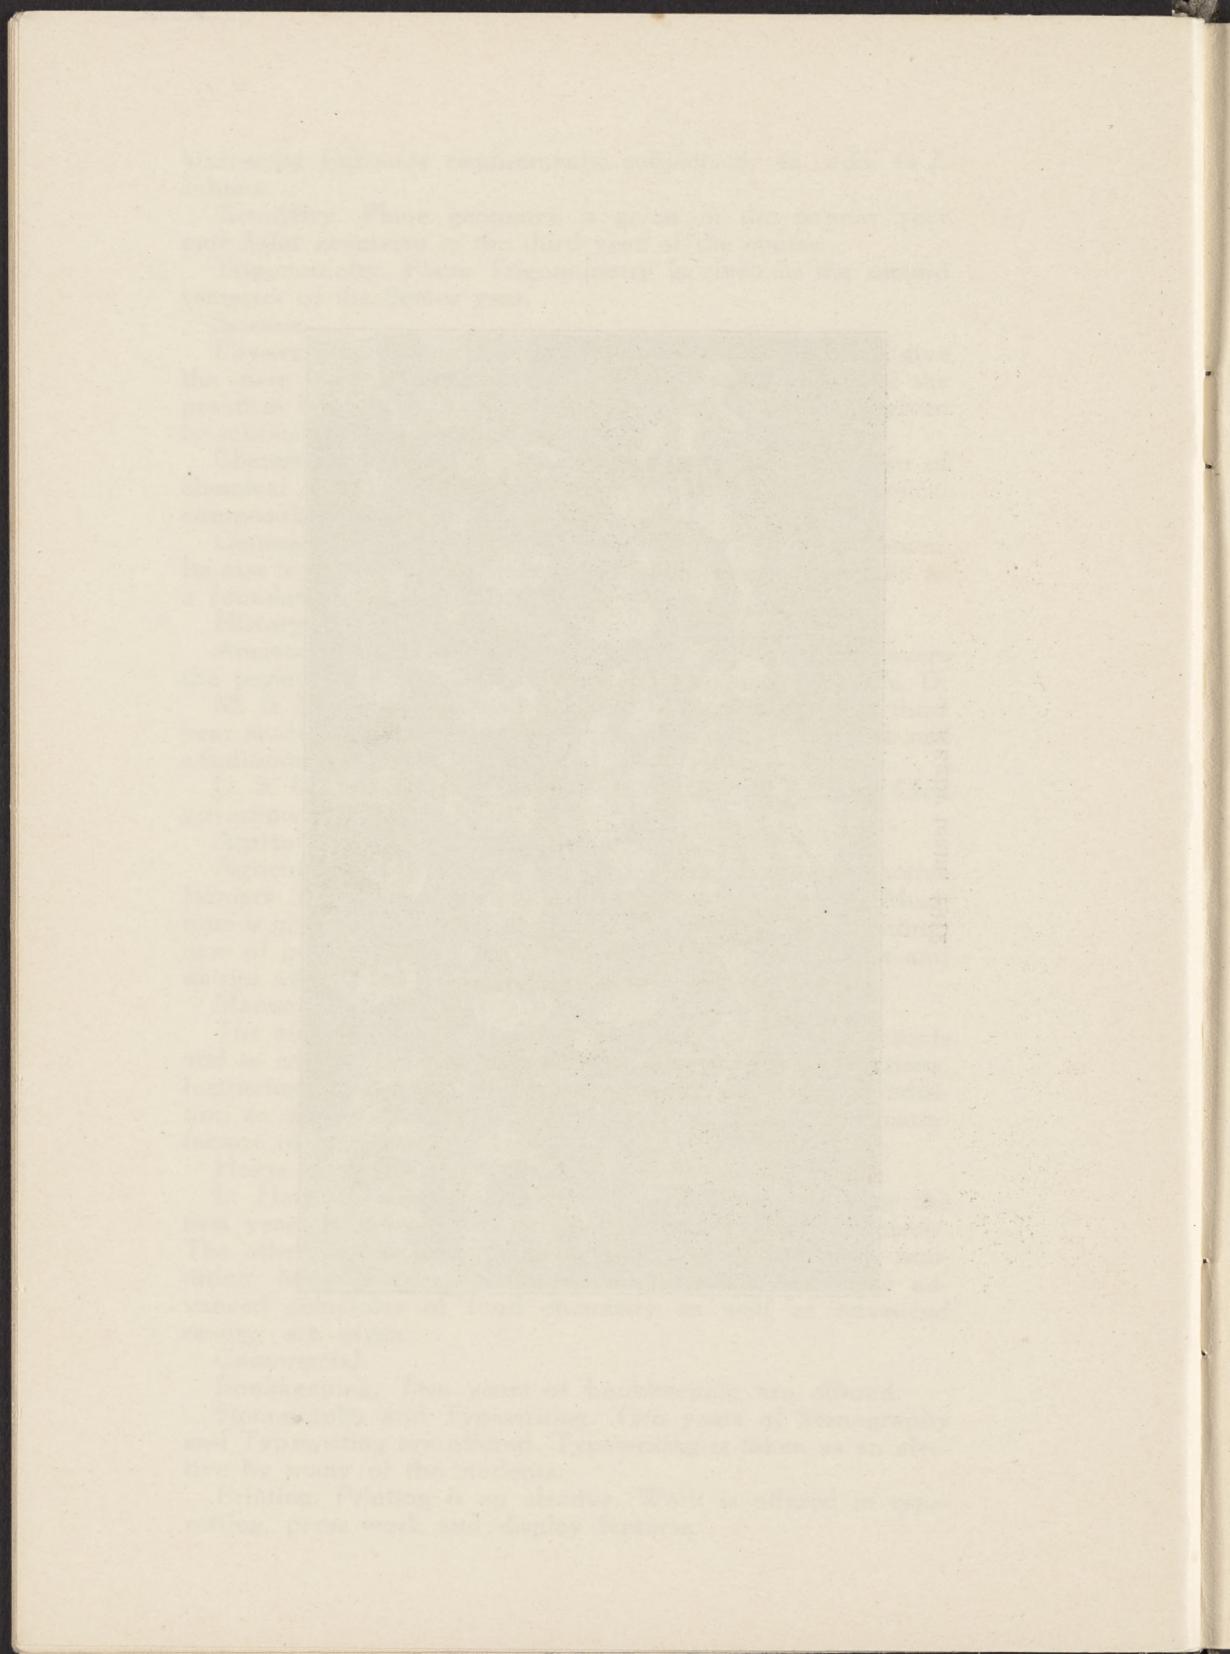

Bookkeeping. Two years of bookkeeping are offered.

Stenography and Typewriting. Two years of Stenography and Typewriting are offered. Typewriting is taken as an elective by many of the students.

Printing. Printing is an elective. Work is offered in type-setting, press work and display features.

(Prepared by Irene Benbow)

If all the pupils that entered Washington High School in the year 1912 were still attending there would be no doubt that the class of 1916 would set the record for the largest number that ever graduated from Washington High School. They dropped off one by one, until eighteen are left from the number that entered in 1912.

These have kept the pace through the four years, enjoying the good times and bearing up under the more serious things, such as the examinations that loom up so darkly, especially when one knows they are going to show what one has really accomplished.

The class of 1916 have undoubtedly done their best to make good, and the few hard knocks they may have received during their school life have only fitted them to go into the world and take up their future career, more experienced and wiser young men and women.

Following are those who entered with the class of 1912 but have dropped out before their high school education was finished, or have gone to attend some other school and will graduate this year:

Lester Brewer. Attended W. H. S. for about six months, and is now assistant manager in the Sterling Furniture Co. in San Francisco.

Warren Catterlin. Recently worked for Mr. Stratton of Niles but is now working for his father, Mr. Wm. Catterlin. He attended W. H. S. until his sophomore year.

Jerry Collins. Was one of our foot-ball stars but left us and is now working for S. B. Buchanan of Newark, in his grocery store.

Lawrence Christi. Left W. H. S. to attend Oakland High and will graduate from there this year.

Salvina Gonsalves. Has become quite an experienced motorist, and the time that is not spent on the farm is used in speeding around the contry and keeping the motor-cops on the alert.

Walter Martenstein. Is now working for his mother Mrs. C. Martenstein of Niles. He attended W. H. S. until his sophomore year.

Lawrence Thurlkel. After leaving W. H. S. he attended the Polytechnic Business College in Oakland for a year. He is now working in Palo Alto as a carpenter.

Wm. Trenouth. Left W. H. S. in his sophomore year and is at present running the traction engine for his father. His leisure time is spent in trying out his racer on good stretches of road.

Adrian Russell. Went to reside in San Francisco while in his third year at W. H. S. and is working there, altho he has serious contemplations of going east.

Dwight Yeaman. Is now attending the high school of Santa Cruz and will graduate from there this year. The latest reports are that he has become a great debater.

Caesar Marshall. Attended school for a short while and is working for the Morse-Watson Co. in San Francisco.

Tony Caldera. Started with the class now graduating, but only went a few days. He is now working at his home in Newark.

Rosaline Anderson. Attends Hayward High School and will graduate from there this year.

Gertrude Horn. Attended school until her junior year and is now in the millinery trade in Stockton.

Margaret Horn. Becoming experienced in the art of cooking and sewing, as she is at her home in Irvington.

Beatrice Jones. Holds a position in the bank at Niles. She attended school until the latter part of her sophomore year.

Elizabeth Lopes. Is now living in San Francisco on Fillmore Street, where her parents are running a boarding house.

Ruth Packwood. Attends the high school in Redwood City and will graduate this year. She spent a few days with us near the Christmas vacation.

Edith Rose. After leaving school she attended the Polytechnic Business College for awhile and is now a stenographer in an attorney's office in San Francisco.

Marie Sharpe. Working as a stenographer in Oakland and is often a visitor in Niles.

Nydine Snow. Left school to undertake a more serious line of work in life—matrimony. She is now Mrs. Lester Burdick of Newark.

Blanche Sullivan. Is attending Hayward High and will graduate this year.

Gertrude Williams. Resided in Newark for a time but is now living in Loomis, Placer County. She will graduate from the high school there this year.

Gladys Williams. After leaving Newark, took up her school work in Loomis and will graduate this year also.

Edna Armstrong. Attended W. H. S. for a short time but she, too, has taken up the more serious work of matrimony, and is now Mrs. Geo. Johnson of Niles.

These having dropped out of the class of 1912 sooner or later, the remainder are those that will graduate with the class of 1916:

Leonard Barnard. Intends to attend Stanford. The school will miss "Happy" as no matter where one turns they usually meet his good natured face.

Ben Mickle. Seems to think he needs a rest after four years of hard work, so will remain home a year before going on with his school career at Stanford.

Henry Veit. Speaks of becoming a "scene shifter," but some of us think he is seriously thinking of going on the stage as "Heine"; seems to be quite adapted to the art.

Erwin Lewis. Seems to be undecided as yet as he speaks mysteriously of "hard graft." Most likely he will soon come to some decision.

Weston Emery. Has intentions of remaining home for a time. Says he might go to South America in search of a goldmine.

Joseph Morris. May take up civil engineering altho some of his fellow chums seem to think he is more adapted to the serious side of life—religion. But "Joe" only looks wise at this.

Leopold Falk. After his graduation from W. H. S. he will work in San Francisco in the Zellerbach Paper Co.

Matilda Oliveira. Is as yet undecided whether she will go on with her education or become a nurse. If she goes on she intends to attend the Normal School of San Jose.

Zelmera Domenici. Will go on with her education and attend the Normal in San Jose.

Dorothy Smith. Will perhaps make her home from now on in San Jose and attend the Normal there.

Bessie Stivers. Will attend Polytechnic Business College in Oakland in the near future.

Harriet Ellsworth. From high school she intends to go on to the University of California and complete her education.

Elsie Haley. Like some of the others she will attend the Normal in San Jose, her ambition being to be a teacher.

Dorothy Tyson. Will undoubtedly follow the footsteps of her chum, Bess Stivers, and attend Polytechnic Business College in Oakland.

Edith Fair. Will either take up domestic duties at home or become a nurse in one of the Oakland hospitals.

Anna Lowrie. Intends to go to college altho she may attend Normal for awhile, before starting out on her college career.

Mildred Jung. Seems to be undecided as yet altho she may attend some finishing school later.
